Accessing Help

To access on-line help, you can select Help on CollaborativeEdge on the Main Menu:

You can also click the Help button (shown below) on most pages to display context-sensitive help:

In either case, the help information displays in a new browser window. To exit from help, simply close the window:

Click this X to close the extra browser window.